

Work-Life Employee Discount Promotions and Limited Time Offers

Work-Life employee discount programs are of general consumer interest and ALL State employees are eligible. Products or services purchased and any arrangements agreed upon are strictly between the individual employee and the service vendor. The State of Colorado assumes no obligation or liability and does not endorse any of the products, services, or discount service providers.

As any informed consumer, you are encouraged to shop and compare prices and services before buying.

All permanent state employees are eligible for these discounts; however, limitations on participation may exist for those specific employees directly and significantly involved in the procurement process. Please consult your purchasing director for guidance.

Costco

Costco is offering non-members the opportunity to shop at Costco using a free shopping pass for Saturday, November 8, 2003. See the flyer for more information on this offer.

Dell Computer

Dell Computer has a special promotion offer on select products good through October 31, 2003.

Six Flags Elitch Gardens

Six Flags is offering all state employees a discount on the regular gate price for admission. The regular price is $35.99, as a state employee you may purchase up to 6 general use tickets at the discounted price of $17.99 for each ticket. *You must print a copy of this coupon and present it when purchasing tickets at Six Flags Elitch Gardens. This offer is valid through November 2, 2003. See the coupon for other exclusions and contact information.

For more information on other valuable discounts available to state employees, please visit the Employee Discount Vendor Information section.